

Biography

Sir Trevor Carmichael is the Founder and Principal of Chancery Chambers, a premier regional law firm which has gained international recognition. Sir Trevor has spoken to a wide range of audiences on international, commercial and tax matters and has also been twice the keynote speaker at the Canadian Condominium Institute's Annual Meetings in Toronto, Canada.

He has authored over one hundred (100) articles and monographs in the areas of Law, Economics and Public Policy, and he serves as a Panel Member of the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) of the World Bank in Washington. He is also a Certified International Arbitrator with the International Centres for Arbitration, and a Vice President of the International Institute of Association and Foundation Lawyers, as well as a Member of the International Council of Environmental Law.

Education

Harrison College, University Of West Indies, Post Graduate Studies (UK)

Activities & Affiliations

Member: International Bar Association, Inter-American Bar Association, Inter-American Bar Foundation, Canadian Bar Association, International Law Association

Member: International Tax Planning Association, International Fiscal Association

Life fellow of the Institute for Advanced Legal Studies in the UK; Life member Commonwealth Magistrates & Judges Association

Bar Admissions

United Kingdom (Middle Temple), Barbados